

Wherever you are in your career, we are here for you.

BHMT's mission is to support life-long learning and provide you with opportunities to directly engage in your own career management.

Who was Ben Hudnall?

Ben Hudnall was a tireless advocate for organized labor and Kaiser Permanente's Labor Management Partnership.

Ben was a trusted advisor and leader in the Partnership since its founding in 1996. Among his many accomplishments, Ben spearheaded the 2005 KP HealthConnect Effects Bargaining Agreement assuring thousands of Partnership-represented employees could choose retraining for other KP jobs if the initiative caused the elimination of their jobs.

Ben was an unwavering supporter of education and career advancement. The Trust was named in his honor to further acknowledge his dedication to workers.

CAREER COACHING

Career Coaching is an integral part of BHMT's support system for participants: appointments, workshops, career fairs, webinars, tools, tips, and more are available to all BHMT-eligible employees.

Career Development Coaches confidentially meet with you to discuss how to advance or change your job or career. Guidance is offered in a step-by-step process of self-exploration, research, planning, training and networking. You can also log into MyBHMT.org, your personal portal, to check on benefits and apply for programs.

Academic Success Coaches help you determine your readiness for academic programs, identify the program and school best suited to your career goals, and share tips about how to succeed.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Individual Stipend Program (ISP): Wage replacement income paid directly to you from BHMT so you can study and attend classes (once your application is approved). There is a lifetime maximum benefit of 1900 hours.
